

CSCA 2023 St. Louis
Sports Communication Business Meeting
March 30, 2023

Welcome

7 attendees were at this business meeting

Approval of 2022 minutes (Dave Wendt, Bonnie Sierlecki)

Overview of 2022 convention: highest submissions to history for this interest group.

- Six sessions of papers, panels, and business meeting

Elections: need to elect a vice chair and secretary this year.

- Secretary does not automatically move to vice chair spot.
Vice chair becomes chair.

Scott asked for nominations from the floor for secretary and vice president.

- No nominations from the floor.
- Scott will send out email to seek nominations.
- Bonnie Sierlecki may want to be vice chair, but will check with department and get back to Scott.

Awards: the selection process went by the top ratings. Recipients received the highest ratings.

- Awarded top panel, top student paper, and top paper awards

Next year's conference brainstorming ideas:

- Forgotten histories and participations in sport (pedagogically)
- Viewership for women's NCAA sports
- Forgotten narratives around MLB Baseball and the Negro Leagues.
- Incoherence of NFL messaging around athlete activism.
- Co-sponsored ideas for panels: media, intercultural communication, rhetoric

Request for other thoughts and announcements

Adjournment